REZA HADISI

TŪSĪ ON THE FORM & MATTER OF PERFECTION

Reza Hadisi is an Assistant Professor in Philosophy and the Center for Medieval Studies. He received his PhD from the University of Illinois, Chicago. His research focuses on the overlap of ethics and epistemology in the history of philosophy. He has previously worked on Kant's theory of epistemic normativity, and he is currently working on a project about moral perfectionism and moral knowledge in medieval Arabic and Persian philosophy.
