

MICHAEL E. MARMURA

LECTURES IN ARABIC STUDIES
2022/2023

IN PERSON:
BANCROFT BUILDING
BF200B

ROBERT WISNOVSKY MUHAMMAD 'ABDUH AS AVICENNIAN PHILOSOPHER AND LOGICIAN

Robert Wisnovsky (PhD, 1994, Near Eastern Studies, Princeton) is James McGill Professor of Islamic Philosophy at the Institute of Islamic Studies at McGill University. He also served two terms as Director of the Institute. Wisnovsky specializes in the history of Islamic thought, with an emphasis on the origins, development and influence of the philosophy of Avicenna (Ibn Sīnā, d. 1037). He is the author of Avicenna's Metaphysics in Context (Cornell, 2003) and multiple influential articles on Islamic philosophy, and the editor of numerous volumes on Islamic intellectual history.

FRIDAY, MARCH 31ST 3-5PM